How you can reach our bank

By train

The main railway station of Rome "Roma Termini" you can reach with numerous international and national connections. From the main station (main exit) you can take the bus number 64 until the stop "Via di Porta Cavalleggeri". From there you reach our bank by a few steps.

Alternatively you can take from the main railway station Termini also the local train (treno regionale) "Roma-Civitavecchia" to the station "Stazione San Pietro" which is close by our bank.

By aeroplane

From the airport Fiumicino (Leonardo da Vinci) you can take the shuttle bus to Rome centre. Alternatively you can take the express train "Leonardo Express Aeroporto-Roma Termini" from the airport to the main railway station "Roma-Termini" which leaves every 30 minutes (to continue from Termini see "by train"). But you can take also the local train "Fiumicino Aeroporto-Orte" to the station "Stazione San Pietro" (attention: in this case you must change the train at the station "Stazione Trastevere" or you can take a Taxi from there).

By car

Please follow the instructions "Città del Vaticano" o "San Pietro" (in case you are arriving to Rome via motorway-circle "Grande Raccordo Anulare" (G.R.A.), you should leave at "SS1 Aurelia"). The Pax-Bank is close by the Vatican area. A parking place (to pay) you will find diagonally in opposite to the Pax-Bank under the railway bridge which leads to the Vatican.

By public traffic subway (metro): The nearest metro station close to our bank is "Ottaviano/San Pietro" (line A) north from S. Peters Square. From there you can reach our bank (on foot) in about 10-15 minutes.
